ELISABETH YORK FALL COLLECTION FOCUSES ON MOOD, HANDCRAFTED ELEGANCE

NEWPORT NEWS, Va.,— Luxury bedding brand, ELISABETH YORK will introduce its Fall 2018 line during the Atlanta Home and Gift Market July 10-16.

With a focus on handcrafted elegance and the creation of mood through texture and color, the fall collection delves even further into the home fashion world's velvet trend with new intros teeming with sumptuous texture and the perfect amount of drama.

The Vela quilt, available in Ivory and Ink, inspires two completely different moods with its diverse colorways. Quilted by hand, Vela has features a soft velvet face, backed with sheeting fabric for a light, cool feel for comfortable sleeping.

A dramatic Ink colorstory spans the collection, creating a moody atmosphere with its rich tone in decadent fabrics and handcrafted designs. Boasting the deep blue hue, the Sancia, Carine, and Alida pillows all lend an inspired elegance with hand stitching and intricate embellishments.

Previously available in Granite, the Tinsley Dove Collection makes its debut as a second color option with a fresh aesthetic. Handcrafted with texture and a subtle sheen, the tailored herringbone design and understated channel stitching of Tinsley evokes an allover sophisticated appeal.

The fall 2018 collection will be on display at ELISABETH YORK's permanent showrooms during summer markets in Atlanta, Dallas and Las Vegas, as well as Highpoint Market in October.
